G.O.RT.No. 2279

Dated: 08-12-2016

Read the following:-

1. From the Joint Secretary to Government of India, Ministry of Finance, Department of Economic Affairs, New Delhi, D.O.Lr.No. 12/3/2016/-PPP, dated 18.11.2016.

ORDER:

1. In the reference read above Joint Secretary to Government of India, Ministry of Finance, Department of Economic Affairs, New Delhi, has informed that Department of Economic affairs (DEA), Ministry of Finance, Government of India has taken several policy and institutional initiatives to create an enabling environment for broad – basing the development of infrastructure projects under the Public Private Partnership (PPP) frame work at the Central and State Government levels. One of the successful DEA initiatives was the three year National PPP capacity Building Programme, launched in 2010. Many of the over 4646 government officials who were trained under this programme, have evolved into active PPP practitioners in different sectors in various government ministries, departments and public entities, including at the local government level like municipal corporations.

2. In order to ensure that the gains of the last initiative are not lost with the passage of time and the entry of officials unfamiliar with PPP at decision making levels of government, and also to familiarise more experienced officials with developments in the PPP world today, Department of Economic Affairs is launching the second phase of its capacity building initiative through a series of basic and advanced level courses on PPP at various locations across the Country. As a part of this a basic level 3-day residential course on PPP would be conducted at the Capitol Hotel, Bangalore from 14th to 16th of December, 2016.

3. In this regard the Joint Secretary, Department of Economic Affairs, has requested to nominate one official from Finance Department to participate in three day residential training programme under PPP Capacity Building Programme to be held at the Capitol Hotel, Bangalore from the 14th to 16th December, 2016.STQC:

4. After careful examination of the matter Government hereby nominate Sri K.Samuel Jublee, Section Officer, Finance Department to participate in three day residential training programme under PPP Capacity Building Programme to be held at the Capitol Hotel, Bangalore from the 14th to 16th December, 2016.
